

IMPORTANT CHANGES

MECHANICAL SERVICES

MEDICAL GAS

QBCC's licence application process supports many different pathways. The information and documentation you need to provide us to assess your application will depend on your circumstances. Below is an overview of the common pathways and the transitional arrangements that apply for the new Mechanical Services - Medical Gas licence. For more detailed information, visit qbcc.build/medigas.

CIRCUMSTANCES	DOCUMENTATION	DEADLINE
APPRENTICE & NEW ENTRANTS All apprentices who complete their apprenticeship from 1 January 2020 will need the relevant licence before they can carry out mechanical services work. Information about apprentices who complete before 31 December 2019 can be found on QBCC's website at qbcc.build/mechservices. NEW ENTRANTS: workers new to the industry in Queensland.	Documentation is dependent on the type of licence you apply for. See below licence application documentation for a: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Contractor Nominee Supervisor (working for a company) Site Supervisor Employee 	MUST HOLD LICENCE FROM: 1 JANUARY 2020
CONTRACTOR You are required to hold a QBCC Trade Contractor Mechanical Services - Medical Gas licence. NOTE: Existing gasfitters may be eligible to apply for this licence using alternate pathways. Learn more at qbcc.build/medigas.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Individual Trade Contractor Licence Application Experience if required Certificate of completion of approved managerial course Financial information showing you meet the minimum financial requirements Proof of identity <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Documents showing technical qualifications A certificate of completion of a QBCC approved managerial course If you have a trading name for your business you can provide this with your application 	MUST HOLD LICENCE BY: 1 JULY 2020
COMPANY & NOMINEE SUPERVISOR To provide mechanical services - medical gas services in Queensland, a company requires a QBCC Company licence and a 'nominee supervisor' for the company who has a QBCC Nominee Supervisor licence. The nominee supervisor must be an officer or employee of the company.	COMPANY <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Company Licence Application Details of the nominee A current Historical Company Extract (PDF) Financial information showing Minimum Financial Requirements are met, unless exempt Proof of identity for at least 1 director If you have a trading name for your business you can provide this with your application NOMINEE SUPERVISOR <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Individual Trade Contractor Licence Application Experience if required Documents showing technical qualifications A certificate of completion of a QBCC approved managerial course Proof of identity 	MUST HOLD LICENCE BY: 1 JULY 2020
SITE SUPERVISOR A site supervisor licence allows an employee or officer of a licensed contractor to supervise building work under the contractor's licence.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Site Supervisor Licence Application Documents showing technical qualifications Proof of identity 	MUST HOLD LICENCE BY: 1 JANUARY 2022
EMPLOYEE From 1 January 2022, you will need a QBCC Mechanical Services occupational licence to continue performing mechanical services medical gas work as an employee. If you don't have qualifications for the work you currently perform as an employee, you will need to gain them or have your current skills recognised by a Registered Training Organisation (RTO).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Occupational Licence Application Evidence of technical qualifications or if you don't hold the technical qualifications you may be eligible for Recognition of Prior Learning (see below) Proof of identity 	MUST HOLD LICENCE BY: 1 JANUARY 2022

Do you have experience without qualifications?

If you have experience but you don't hold the required technical qualifications, you should consider skills assessment. You may be eligible for Recognition of Prior Learning. For more information about Recognition of Prior Learning and the Registered Training Organisation that provide these services, go to qbcc.build/techpathways.